Continuing Professional Development
UWA Multidisciplinary Health Seminar

Infection Control

Topics include:
- Local and Global Perspective
- Antibiotic Resistance
- Superbugs
- Clostridium difficile
- Antibiotic Guidelines
- Viruses and pandemics
- Hand Hygiene
- Workplace OHS
- Immunisation
- Antibiotics in Dentistry

The University of WA in association with the Infection and Immunology Health network is proud to present a unique educational seminar to provide updates on the best clinical practice and workplace procedures recommended for infection control in Western Australia.

Expert speakers include Paul Abbott, Paul Armstrong, Ben Clark, Sylvia Gandossi, Shirley Harrison, Palee Kaur, Tom Riley, David Smith and Alison Thrum.

Open to all members of the multidisciplinary health care team.

Saturday 27th October 2012
8:30am - 3.00pm
Theatre Auditorium
The UWA Club

- Presentations from across the spectrum of health professions
- A platform for health practitioners to share their expertise
- Network opportunities with other health professionals
- Develop and strengthen collaboration and referral pathways
- CPD five active lecture hours plus optional post-seminar assessment
- Online availability of presentations

PROGRAM AND REGISTRATION DETAILS
www.medpharm.uwa.edu.au/cpd/program
UWA CPD Health—cpdhealth@uwa.edu.au