Busselton and Surrounds
Abbey Beach is located just outside Busselton in the South West of Western Australia and is the gateway resort to the Margaret River region. This is an area renowned for its beautiful beaches, large surf, forests, cavers, art, wineries, exquisite food and interesting wildlife. There are many great opportunities to experience including canoeing, golfing, caving, indigenous cultural tours, food and wine tours, whale watching and plenty more.

Busselton/Margaret River is a 2 ½ hour drive from Perth, the capital city of Western Australia. Further information on the local area can be found on the following websites:
